GDPR-compliant data processing

OMNIPRIVACY supports you in the legally compliant processing of personal data and with the processing of data protection-related requests of all kinds. For this purpose, all processing activities are digitally recorded and stored securely. In addition, all obtained data protection agreements and other documents are filed and archived centrally.

Within the framework of data privacy impact assessments (DPIA), regular checks are carried out to determine whether personal information is adequately protected during the readout in accordance with the GDPR. Target group-specific reports help you to comply with internal and external obligations to provide evidence. Thanks to the clear and documented data processing with OMNIPRIVACY, you can recognize and evaluate data protection risks in a structured manner and thus keep the number and impact of incidents low.
